The Yale Young Global Scholars Program (YYGS) is an intense academic summer program designed to provide talented high school students with interdisciplinary insight, global awareness, and critical skills for becoming leaders inside and outside the classroom. Participants spend two weeks on Yale’s campus in New Haven, Connecticut getting an authentic taste of life at Yale with their classmates from around the world.

Throughout the program, students will have direct access to renowned Yale faculty and current Yale undergraduate and graduate students from across the University.

In YYGS students will:
• Improve analytical thinking, intellectual flexibility, written and oral communication
• Engage productively with a diverse group of like-minded peers
• Participate in lively small group discussions on a range of contemporary issues
• Develop key skills to better position themselves as global leaders

CURRENT HIGH SCHOOL SOPHOMORES AND JUNIORS ARE ELIGIBLE.
“After completing YYGS, students have a globalized idea of important topics, friends all across the world, and more importantly, the inspiration to do big things.” - 2015 alumna

YYGS IS OFFERING SIX UNIQUE PRE-COLLEGIATE EXPERIENCES IN 2016:

Politics, Law, and Economics: June 19 – July 2
Applied Science & Engineering: June 19 – July 2
International Affairs and Security: July 8 – July 21
Biological & Biomedical Science: July 8 – July 21
Technology, Innovation, & Entrepreneurship: July 26 - August 8
Sustainability, Energy, & Environment: July 26 - August 8

All six sessions give high school student leaders opportunities to recognize and understand contemporary global issues, strategize responses, and innovate solutions while learning from renowned practitioners and Yale faculty members in a range of fields.

The rigorous schedule includes daily lectures from Yale faculty, discussion sections, seminars, and residential life meetings. Participants are required to complete a writing, research, and presentation project that includes a teamwork component.
